1. Our shared purpose

Choose what your family wants technology to support.

☐ Better focus and schoolwork☐ Better sleep☐ More family connection☐ Safer online choices☐ More offline hobbies☐ Other:

2. Our device-free zones

Select the places where phones, tablets, and gaming devices stay away.

☐ Dining table / meals☐ Bedrooms overnight☐ Homework area☐ Short car rides☐ Family outings☐ Other:

3. Our device-free times

Pick predictable moments when everyone is present and devices are put away.

☐ During meals☐ During focused homework☐ 1 hour before bed☐ School mornings☐ Planned family time☐ Other:

4. Recreational screen-time plan

Schoolwork and necessary communication can be handled separately.

Family member	Weekday limit	Weekend limit	Device bedtime	Notes

Use these rules as a starting point. Add, remove, or rewrite anything so it fits your family.

5. How we will use technology

Select the expectations that everyone agrees to follow.

- ☐ We communicate respectfully online and do not post to embarrass or harm others.
- ☐ We protect personal information and use privacy settings appropriate for our age.
- ☐ Children ask before downloading apps, making purchases, or creating new accounts.
- ☐ We tell a trusted adult when something online feels unsafe, upsetting, or confusing.
- ☐ We pause devices when someone is speaking to us.
- ☐ Devices charge overnight in the agreed location.
- ☐ Adults will model the same healthy habits they expect from children.

6. Safety and support plan

Decide who children can contact and how adults will help without immediate blame.
